Vol. 1—No. 119 GLENDALE (LOS ANGELES POSTOFFICE), CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1921 Weather—Fair and Warmer

ANNUAL REUNION OF THE NINETY-FIRST DIVISION

A strenuous effort to pull every member of the Ninety-first division who is not in the hospital or on a honeymoon, on September 24 and 25 to the annual reunion of the division in Los Angeles on those dates, began this week with the enlistment of a company of newspapermen to spread news of the arrangements for the reunion, as they are made.

The publicity committee, headed by Major J. W. Sutphen, who served with the 362d infantry, is being enlarged by the addition of a representative in each city and village in the Ninth corps area—California, Montana, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada and Utah. As special railroad rates are obtained, distinguished guests invited, arrangements made for regimental banquets and other entertainments in Los Angeles, members of the committee will be bulletined and they in turn will see that the information is spread broadcast throughout their respective communities.

In a short time, recruiting committees are to be named in each community of the Ninth corps area and through them reenlistments in the Ninety-first for the duration of the reunion obtained. Between 15,000 and 20,000 are expected to attend. Banquets, parades, elections, speeches, campfires and excursions are on the program.

A moonlight picnic on Santa Monica beach is on the list of entertainments. Santa Monica is where Mack Sennett's bathing beauties frolic, and there are no bathing machines there, as at the French beaches.

GLENDALE AN IDEAL CITY ACCORDING TO STATISTICS

Glendale is the quintessence of morality. Breach of law and order are as rare as summer rain and crime is at a premium. Goodness is rampant and the ledgers in Judge F. H. Lowe's police court are threatened with an inundation of dust.

Perhaps the weather is responsible for this state of things, but Judge Lowe thinks different. While he points out that business at the police court comes in cycles he asserts that if statistics were available, Glendale would rank well up among cities of its size throughout the country having a minimum of crime or lesser offences.

Glendale, early in its history, established a precedence as a community of law abiding citizens, believes the Judge, and this observance of law and order being contageous has been perpetuated to the present day. Further more, he points out, residents of this city will not tolerate the existance of undesirable persons here, and this demand for civic wholesomeness has resulted in making Glendale one of the most desirable communities in which to live in any part of the country.

SHEET METAL WORKS ASKS FOR PERMIT

Thielen & Yaeger want to establish a sheet metal works at 1418 South San Fernando road. This is outside the industrial district, so the application has been referred to the building department to investigate as to whether or not nearby residents will object.

TURLOCK, Calif., July 20.— More than 200 Japanese melon pickers were deported from this district last night and today, and 200 more who were arriving to go to work were turned back on the highways before they reached their destinations. The deportations were carried out without violence and without interference from the authorities.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS GET HOME FROM PINE FLATS CAMP

Mr. Boyd of the Glendale Constuction Company reports that the second and last camp at Pine Flats so far as Y. M. C. A. boys is concerned is over and Tuesday the boys who have been enjoying it for the past two weeks to the number of 125 came down to the Red Triangle Cabin in the San Gabiel Canyon where they were met by parents and frieends at 4 p. m. and transported th rest of the way. They were accompanied by Secretary Rex Kelly who went back this morning to superintend the transportation of their luggage which they had to leave behind. The group represented boys from Burbank, Van Nuys, Alhambra, Monrovia and Azusa as well as Glendale which sent about fifty of its younger Y. M. C. A. boys this time.

RUSTIC LANE IS A NEW SUBDIVISION

The G. P. Newport Co. has recently laid out another subdivision in Verdugo Woodlands and thereby added three new streets and an extension of another. "Rustic Lane," "Woodland Avenue", and "Woodland Lane," are the new streets, though the latter is but an extension of the second one named. Gloreta Avenue, the eastern terminus of which was formerly Canada boulevard has been extended to form the northern boundary of the new subdivision and now reaches in a series of graceful curves, to Verdugo Canyon boulevard. The new tract is densely wooded and is bounded on the east by Verdugo Canyon boulevard, on west by Canada boulevard and on the south by Del Valle Avenue while Don Carlos Avenue crosses it.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

(By International News Service)

SEATTLE, July 20.—The Arlington company of the National Guard, is beating the forest around Arlington near here, in a hunt for three-year-old Carmelia, daughter of Charles Corpalo, a rancher, who disappeared from her home yesterday afternoon. The militia searched throughout the night, aided by a band of boy scouts led by Rev. Jack Dunstan. Little hope is entertained for finding the child alive. Sheriff Matt Starwich, of King county, is sending deputy sheriffs with a pack of blood hounds to aid in the search.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The Admiral line steamer Queen, enroute to this port from Los Angeles with more than 100 passengers and a crew of 60 aboard, has been taken in tow by a tug dispatched from this port and is now proceeding here slowly. The Queen was partially disabled last night, due to trouble with her sea pumps and boiler trouble.

SEATTLE, July 20.— William W. McGuire, superintendent of the city-county building, is having screens placed in front of the jury box so that women jurors may continue to wear short skirts, rolled-down stockings and highly-colored garters without disconcerting attorneys, the judges or crowding the courtroom with the curious. "I am doing this so that women jurors may cross their legs if they wish, without giving the morbid court hangers-on a sex jag," said McGuire.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Payment in installments over a period of 12 years of the accrued interest due from Great Britain on her indebtedness to this country, was seriously considered by the treasury department under the Wilson administration, it was disclosed today by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon when he resumed his testimony before the senate finance committee regarding the $11,000,000,000 foreign indebtedness to the United States.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 20.—Federal agents here believe liquor smugglers on the Jersey coast now are using seaplanes which operate from ships lying outside of the three-mile limit. The rum-running has continued in such measure despite the large fleet of surface patrol vessels, that the seaplane theory seems the only explanation. In a raid on a palatial boathouse in Great Bay, eight miles from here, two seaplanes were reported to have removed a portion of the liquor cargo before the arrival of the revenue and coast guardsmen. The boathouse was found to have an elaborate wireless equipment.

YOSEMITE, Calif., July 20.— The first child ever to fly into Yosemite valley arrived here today with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Varney, of San Francisco, making the trip here in two hours and twenty minutes. She is Virginia Varney, 8 years old, and as she climbed down from the cockpit of her father's machine, she handed Chief Ranger Townsley her sawdust cat, with instructions to hold "Fuzzy" carefully, for it was her mascot.

AMOUNT IN FUND FOR CITY ADVERTISING INSUFFICIENT

City Manager Watson Says That Business Tax Might Raise Necessary Sum

With a view to bringing the city budget, which was completed for public inspection last week, before the attention of the business men of the city, City Manager Thomas Watson, speaking to the board of directors of the chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon, reviewed the salient features and the chief items of expenditure contained in the budget. Provision for $700 to be used in city advertising is made in the budget and this came up for discussion by board members who pointed out that under present conditions the main burden of advertising the city has been borne by the chamber of commerce while the city as a whole derives the benefit.

It was pointed out, at the same time, that there are only 509 members in the chamber of commerce and these are assessed to meet the cost of advertising the entire city. Seven-hundred dollars, it was stated, would fall far short of the needs for advertising purposes during the current year. Upon motion members Lusby, Bentley and Ferry were appointed to confer with Mr. Watson relative to increasing the amount specified in the city budget for advertising purposes. Several members expressed themselves as of the opinion that $10,000 would not be an excessive amount for the chamber of commerce to ask the city to devote to municipal advertising for the year.

A suggestion was made by Mr. Watson that a city advertising fund might be raised through levying a business tax. Many cities already employ this means of raising finances for public projects of the sort, he pointed out, stating that Burbank and Eagle Rock have recently adopted the scheme.

The chamber of commerce was asked through Mr. Watson, to use its influence in having the Grand View district, recently annexed to Glendale, attached to the Glendale Post Office for mail delivery. At the present time this section of the city is having its mail handled through Burbank and it feels that in as much as it is now a part of Glendale its post office connection should be with this city.

The matter of designating appropriations to be used in connection with building streets and automobile parking areas near the swimming pool that is to be constructed in Glendale's public park, was touched upon by Mr. Watson. He stated that in all probability there would be many persons from other points of the San Fernando valley who would take advantage of the swimming facilities here.

Before the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce adjourned, Secretary J. A. Rhoades was instructed to make reply to the letter from the Elks' lodge thanking the chamber for the gift of $300 it made for use in building the float with which the Glendale Elks won first prize in the convention parade.

FRIENDS DO HONOR TO AGED WOMAN

Mrs. S. H. Scott of 925 South Central avenue was the guest of honor at a celebration of the 85th anniversary of her birthday Tuesday, when relatives and friends gathered to congratulate her. Today, other groups who wish to do honor to her long and useful life are being entertained at her residence by her daughter, Mrs. Blanche Shea. The groups include members of the W. C. T. U, and friends from Inglewood, where she lived before coming to Glendale.

A Missouri Slicker

(By International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 20.—A St. Joseph Democrat has "city slicked" two St. Louis Republicans who came here to check the names signed to a petition demanding a referendum on certain legislation. Thinking a certain officer-holder was a Republican, the vistors inquired as to whom they might employ as a notary public. The Democrat who had circulated the petitions was subsequently engaged. The list was found correct and the petition was certified.

A Pointed Answer

On the application blanks for building permits at the city hall is the question, just after the description of the house to be built, "For what purpose?" On one of the permits now on file query is answered thus: "To eliminate rent."

MRS. NETH GREETED BY THE CHRISTIAN CIRCLE CLUB

Proposition to Change Name of Club to "Girls' Corner Club" Is Considered

Ninety-five girls of the Christian Circle club, of which Mildred Elliott is president, gathered at the Baptist church last night to greet Mrs. Frances Neth, who so completely won the hearts of Glendale girls during the Brown evangelistic meetings.

The luncheon, which was served by the ladies of the Central Christian church, was punctuated with class yells and cheers for Mrs. Neth.

Miss Elizabeth Mottern, soloist, and Miss Marjorie Bailey, harpist, gave a short musical program that was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Neth, who has just returned from a trip, during which she visited the other Corner clubs, located at Victoria, Can., Vancouver, Can., Houston, Tex., Oakland and Berkeley, Calif., gave the girls an outline of the work of these clubs, and expressed a wish that the Circle club here might join the ranks and be the sixth club, and be known as the "Girls' Corner club." instead of the Christian Circle club. Action on this will be taken at the next meeting of the organization.

Then Mrs. Neth told about the new Corner club she is organizing at 739 South Flower street, Los Angeles. A $65,000 property has been purchased for the permanent home of the club and is being fitted out by various organizations who consider the work Mrs. Neth is doing as one that will meet an imperative need in the city of Los Angeles. The opening will be held the first week in August and the club here received a cordial invitation to be present.

Mrs. Neth will have personal charge of the club rooms, which will be fitted up with a tea room where business girls may bring their lunches and for the small sum of 5 cents receive a cup of coffee, tea, lemonade or chocolate. Two large rest rooms, fully equipped with couches and chairs and reading matter, will be at the disposal of the girls.

The following articles have already been provided: One piano, two rugs, one gas stove, five pine tables, one typewriter, four dozen silver spoons, aluminum ware for the kitchen. The following articles are needed: Two Crex rugs, 9 by 12; one large library table, six wicker easy chairs, two dozen plain chairs, office desk and chair, six cots, six pillows, four dozen cups and saucers, two teapots, two screens and checks.

Mrs. Neth concluded her talk with the story of the two blind men on the road from Jericho, taken from chapter 20 of Matthew, and an appeal to the girls to ever stand for the right and the church.

The "homey!" social hour which followed was much enjoyed by the girls, and "Mother" Neth, as they affectionately call her.

HAVING FUN IN HIGH SIERRAS

Enthusiastic letter have been received from V. H. Hodge of Vine street and party who left here to motor north about a week ago and are now at St. Mary's Lake in the high Sierras. They are finding it cool and delightful and having the most wonderful fishing. On their return they will pass through the Yosemite Valley coming out by way of the Mariposa grove of big trees and Wawona. The party includes Mr. and Mrs. Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson of Los Angeles and Cecil Smith.

Rain in Glendale

There was rain in Glendale last night. Frank March, who lives at 232 North Verdugo Road, says there was a smart little sprinkle in that vicinity about midnight.

DRIVE FROM ILLINOIS BY AUTOMOBILE IN TWO WEEKS

George R. Perkins and Family Have a Delightful But Uneventful Trip

Well satisfied newcomers in Glendale are George R. Perkins and family, who arrived by auto from Urbana, Ill., last Wednesday, after being fourteen days on the way. Urbana is the home of Illinois State university, one of the largest in the nation.

Mr. Perkins is a carpenter and will undoubtedly secure plenty of work in busy Glendale. The party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, two sons, Ressho and Glenn, also a young lady friend of the family, Miss Nita Briarton, who came along for a visit, left Urbana June 25. They went nearly to Chicago, then took to the Lincoln highway. All through Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska and a little beyond the center of Wyoming, crops, especially corn, were in splendid shape, as seasonable rains had fallen but there was absolutely no fruit of any kind, said Mr. Perkins, until Southern California was reached. Western Wyoming, Utah and Nevada were very dry, he said.

The Perkins family is living at 917 East Elk avenue. There is another daughter, Miss Eleanor, who has been in Glendale since last fall, coming then to visit an aunt, Mrs. T C Hughey. The Hughey family lately moved into their new home at 409 West Lomita.

Mr. Perkins says that the trip was without incident of any kind. They had four tire punctures, but no blowouts and no engine trouble. It rained on them twice. They camped out all but three nights and enjoyed the experience very much.

ENJOY AUTO TRIP AND BEACH PARTY

The members of the Epworth League of the Central Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church and their friends enjoyed a delightful moonlight auto trip and Beach Party last night. Supper was served around a large bonfire which greatly added to the pleasure of the evening.

Hewitt, Mrs. Foster, Miss Merell Bowen, Miss Esther Besant, Miss Ellah Dykesten, Miss Jewel Garner, Miss Velma Goss, Miss Irene Ingram, Miss Helen Muhleman, Miss Mildred Williams, Miss Elsa Rhoeder, Miss Ethel Wilson, Mr. Allen Baker, Mr. Ernest Bowen, Mr. Leland Baker, Mr. Albert Hewitt, Mr. William Marple, Mr. Rutherford Wallace.

PRINCE OF WALES PROVES HIS WIT

(By International News Service)

CARDIFF, Wales, July 20.—A vast audience representative of every phase of the national life of Wales was roused to the highest pitch of Celtic enthusiasm when the Prince of Wales, following his installation as Chancellor of the University of Wales recently, conferred degrees on a number of distinguished men and greeted them in Welsh formula, but he came through with flying colors and his pronunciation was unanimously declared to be excellent.

Perhaps the most interesting incident of the proceedings was afforded by the conferring on Mr. Balfour of the degree of Doctor in litteris, for this, as the Prince reminded the audience, enabled him to a certain extent to repay a debt incurred only a week ago at Cambridge, where the positions were reversed.

"There," said the Prince, "Mr. Balfour, as Chancellor, gave me an honorary degree and addressed me at some length in Latin, a tongue with which I regret to say I am not as familiar as I should be. So it is a special pleasure for me to find myself in a position to repay the compliment, both as regards the degree itself and the formula of its presentation, for though I dare not compare my pronunciation of Welsh with his faultless and scholarly Latin, I cannot help thinking that he understood considerably less of my few remarks than I did of what he said to me at Cambridge."

L. A. BOARD OF EDUCATION ASKED TO HOLD OPEN SESSION

Realizing that it might be possible to secure greater efficiency in the administration of the huge sums appropriated for the public schools of Los Angeles and disbursed by the board of education of that city, a citizens' committee appeared before the board Monday night to suggest reorganization of the system along certain lines, to include representation of the teaching staff at the conference table of the superintendent; no change in policy or administrative plan to become operative until the teacher councils have been notified and have had a chance to be heard, the representatives constituting this teachers' council to be chosen in some democratic manner by the teaching force, and presumably to represent the sentiment and experience of those who are carrying on the work of instruction in the schools and therefore in close touch with the situation.

The citizens' committee was headed by Rev. E. P. Ryland, who presented the recommendations to the board, its other members being Kemper Campbell, Francis M. Zahn, Mrs. Arthur S. Heineman, M. O Graves, S. C. Graham, Josepha H. Tollhurst, Mabel Willebrandt, Mrs. Frances Blackburn and Mrs. Frances Noel.

The committee's proposals have been summarized as follows:

"That all the work of the board of education be done in open meetings to which any citizen may have free access.

"That the schools be organized with one executive head, the superintendent of schools.

"That the department heads of education, business, building and so forth, be ranked as assistant superintendents.

"That the board of education thus free itself, as far as possible, from the petty detail work and give itself in full measure to the high function of studying and shaping policies.

"That the teaching body of our schools be officially recognized as an integral part of the school administration; that it be regularly utilized in an advisory capacity; that it function through a system of teacher-councils represented at the conferences of the superintendent's staff and that it be given powers of initiative, council and review."

Jealous of any suggestion that the hundreds of teachers who are actually manning the ship of education should have any part in directing its course or naming its port, the cry of sovietism was immediately raised when their request was presented.

Kemper Campbell, a prominent lawyer of Los Angeles and a resident of Glendale, came to the rescue with a communication to one of the Los Angeles papers, in which he said:

"If this charge of 'sovietism' were true, the writer would oppose the move perhaps even more vociferously than the learned alarmist. The charge, however, is totally untrue. There is no attempt of the teachers to run the schools. They do not want to run the schools.

"The Los Angeles school district costs the citizens of Los Angeles (exclusive of expenditures for school buildings) as much as the entire tax budget of the city—approximately $9,000,000. This enormous expenditure is largely incurred to employ brains, not brawn. The city of Los Angeles has in its employ approximately 4000 teachers having college and university training—all of them experts.

"The situation is that Los Angeles invests annually in $9,000,000 worth of brains, and of this it utilizes about $90,000 worth. The teachers have merely asked, in the interest of the welfare of the public schools, the privilege of submitting to the board of education suggestions evolved from years of actual teaching experience. There is no obligation on the part of the board education to follow these suggestions. They are merely to be rendered available for consideration by the board.

"To make such a plan workable, it is, of course, necessary that these matters be presented through regularly recognized teachers' committees. Their interest in this matter is purely altruistic and professional. It has no connection in the remotest degree with salaries.

"Every taxpayer should be interested in making our schools more efficient. It is only our intense loyalty to the cause of education which makes us tolerate for a moment methods now obtaining in the public schools which no business man would allow in the conduct of his private affairs. Public attention has never been boldly directed to the great possibilities of economies through a general campaign for efficiency in the public schools.

"We are now able to enlist in the cause of efficiency 4000 teachers, and the opportunity to do so should be welcomed."

Mr. Campbell is a son-in-law of David Hibben of this city, president of the Glendale board of education. He is well informed on school matters and is not the type of man, either by education, training or association, to be carried away by any unsound revolutionary theories.

INSTALLATION OF I. O. O. F. OFFICERS

New officers at the local Odd Fellows lodge will be installed Thursday evening in the lodge hall, 111-A East Broadway, by District Deputy Grand Master C. E. King. All Odd Fellows living or visiting in Glendale and vicinity are cordially invited to be present to witness the ceremony and partake of the lunch which will be served at the close.

The officers to be installed are: G. L. Murdock, noble grand; Alfred Baines, vice grand; M. E. Brown, secretary; F. S. Jackson, treasurer.

BEACH OUTING OF EPWORTH LEAGUE

Last evening quite a group of members of the Epworth League of the Central Avenue Methodist Church motored to the beach in a truck driven by Mr. Morgan. They left here about 7 p. m. and went first to Redondo. then motored to Hermosa where they built a fire on the sand and had supper, returning to Glendale about midnight. The party was chaperoned by Rev. and Mrs. Brink, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Marple and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hewitt, and included besides these important members: Albert Hewitt, Rutherford Wallace, Allen Baker, Ernest Bowen, Will Marple, Leland Baker, Clyde Phillips, Mr and Mrs. M. Morgan, Valma Goss, Mildred Williams, Jessie Hunt, Myrtle Bowen, Mrs. Foster. Miss Jewel Foster, Elsa Rhoeder, Irene Ingram, and Esther Besant.

NEW MUSIC STORE ON NORTH BRAND

Owners of the Columbia Grafonalas will be delighted to learn that there is now an exclusive Grafonola store in Glendale, at 203 North Brand. W. A. Kenny who has had 15 years experience in this line in Omaha and Kansas City, is the proprietor and he and his wife "know how." They have a little gem of a store, with many Grafonolas, in different designs in stock, also a large supply of records. The new monthly issues are received regularly and Grafonola records fit other disc machines also, it should be remembered Mr. and Mrs. Kenny, who live at 318 North Maryland, have been in the Southland only two months, coming here from Omaha, Nebraska. They chose Glendale as a location and are well pleased with their choice. They are citizens any community may well be proud of and they should be given the greatest encouragement in building up a business that will yield them a comfortable living.

Diver Recovers Ring

(By International News Service)

MARTINS FERRY, O., July 20.—Virginia Cook, 1921 high school graduate, lost her class ring while bathing in the Ohio River at a camp maintained by several local families above town.

Billy Zimmerman, 7, dived into the water. He brought up a handful of mud to show he had "touched bottom."

In the handful of mud was Miss Cookt's ring.

Every woman's ideal is an up-to-date and modern home and, frankly, the first thing that must go is the carpet. In the living room, particularly, carpets are passe! The hardwood floors have come to stay. Then why not have the Glendale Hardwood Flooring Company of 304 East Broadway replace those old wooden floors and their unsanitary carpets with a good-looking, durable hardwood floor—a thing of beauty forever? You'll be simply amazed at the moderate cost.

You'll be more than satisfied with the Cliff-Laray cosmetics, which are manufactured by Mrs. Laura Walcott of the Walcott Beauty Shoppe of 136 South Brand boulevard. Mrs. Walcott, who is a graduate of one of the most prominent French schools, is an authority on beauty culture, and you may be sure that anything which she sponsors will be absolutely harmless. The Cliff-Laray products are well known all over the United States and may be purchased right here in Glendale at Mrs. Walcott's "shop for particular people" at 136 South Brand boulevard.

Small hats of black taffeta are edged with narrow ruching.

"Dear Martha:

"I am just a plain housewife whose chief problem is what to buy and when to buy to feed my family. You are going about to the markets and groceries, and perhaps you can tell me why they all advertise their bargains on Friday and no other day. It's like a three-ring circus—impossible to cover them all on that day. Now, at our house we have to eat seven days in the week. The stock of perishable food we lay in on Saturday is about exhausted Monday night after we have consumed the made-over dishes manufactured from tag ends left from Sunday. By Tuesday I am ready to lay in another stock and wish I might have some market bulletins in the shape of ads of special delicacies or special prices, but I do not get them until Friday and then, as I have said, I cannot cover them all.

"If some of that advertising could go in say, Monday night, to help me with my Tuesday purchases, it would certainly be a great convenience to me and lots of other housekeepers, especially this warm weather when we do not feel like trotting around in the hot sun to inspect the stocks at the various groceries. Maybe there is some good reason for advertising only one day in the week, but being a mere average patron with, perhaps, a small mind, I fail to see it. Can you enlighten me?

"KATE KARNEIGH."

Everyone's going. Where? Why to Fisher's July sale, of course. Oh, my, yes, they're having a big eight-day July sale—starting Friday morning, July 22, and ending Saturday night, July 30. And such reductions! It's positively unbelievable the money you'll be able to save on cooking utensils and other so-very-necessary household articles. If you take my advice you'll plan to be one of the first ones there Friday morning, for the sales at Fisher's Variety Store are real specials—and everyone knows it, too! Their store is at 212 East Broadway—and, remember, "the early bird catches the worm."

You can't start too young! Why not go down to the First National Bank of Glendale, at the corner of Brand boulevard and Broadway, today and open a Saving Account in Baby's name? By depositing just a small amount for him on each birthday and holiday he'll soon have a nice little nest egg of his own, which will grow and earn interest through the years and by the time that same small son or daughter is ready for college there'll be money enough in the bank to meet all current expenses. Another thing—that same baby will be taught the principles of systematic saving. From the time its able to talk it should be made to realize that the money you've been depositing in the bank so faithfully is working for him or her. You know the First National Bank of Glendale pays 4 per cent interest, which, if you'll stop and figure it out, amounts to quite a good deal at the end of a year. Then there's still another side—suppose something happens to you? Could you feel sure in your own mind that you had done all in your power to prepare for an emergency? Yes, if you knew that there was a neat little savings account at the First National Bank—enough to tide them over.

Perhaps it has been your dream to own income property—something that will pay for itself and assure you a lifelong income? Then I've found just what you're looking for. J. F. Stanford of 112½ South Brand boulevard has just the dandiest lot—50x150 feet—with an east front and running back to an alley, right close in, a section that will before long be business property, and now it's just ripe for an apartment house or four-flat building. It's an ideal location—between Harvard and Broadway — but it surely won't last long at such a low figure. Stanfords are only asking $1800 for it—and on terms, too.

COOL!

Just a word to the wise: If you want real coolness and comfort, drop in at the Enterprise Furniture Company of 216 East Broadway. It's positively and absolutely the coolest I've seen in a long while. And it is a real treat to shop there, not only because of the comfort and service, but because their prices on the loveliest new furniture—dainty bedroom sets and such "comfy" davenports and chairs—are so very reasonable. Don't forget—it's the Enterprise Furniture Company—and you'll feel the cool air as soon as you step in the door.

There was a woman who swept all day—but she was never able to thoroughly clean her carpets and dust her woodwork and furniture all in the same day. But I know someone who can do all of that, and more too, in an hour! Yes, for she was wise enough to buy a Premier Vacuum cleaner from the Glendale Electric Company, of 132 North Brand boulevard. The Premier is so easy to operate and will satisfactorily cover so many different phases of housecleaning that it is a daily joy in the home! Stop in at the Glendale Electric company and look at the Premier and its convenient attachments.

Who could resist them? Cool and dainty "undies," such as Hatz's of 132 South Brand boulevard are showing this week, are enough to tempt any woman's heart. There are adorable "teddies," fluffy combinations and beautiful camisoles, in both pink and white, and of satin, crepe de chine or silk, and from only $1.95 up. And such an array of dainty gowns, trimmed with georgette or lace, and in those lovely pink shades, only $5 and up. Why, you'll feel an entirely different person in these lovely cool undergarments—and they launder so easily and beautifully, too. A neat, good-looking camisole, besides being a decided advantage to graceful carriage, is a veritable necessity in summer—and particularly to be worn 'neath thin organdies or sheer georgette waists. Hatz's stock is now complete and they're simply wonderful — words really can't describe them. You'll have to stop in at the shop for "correct women's wear" at 132 South Brand boulevard and see for yourself. At such prices you can't make a mistake by laying in a goodly supply now.

The "last word" in interior decoration, according to L. H. Allison of 105 West Broadway is enameled trim an authority on correct decorating, too—and Mr. Allison is an authority on correct decoratnig, too—and you see it's really so practical, for the white makes such bright, cheerful surroundings, and its satin smoothness sheds the dust and gives an artistic finish which can be easily washed. But to be sure of perfect results, specify Johnson's Undercoat and Enamel, for its wearing qualities are unsurpassed and it may be satisfactorily used for either old or new woodwork. Johnson's is also made in several different finishes, the white, ivory and French gray. Then there are two kinds of white finishes—the gloss and the satine. Try the gloss for your kitchen and bathroom, it will give a delightful finish—and the satine in the bedroom, living room and dining room—even the sun parlor is exquisite! Another thing, by selecting Johnson's enamel, you have something that will not fade, chip, check, crack or peel, as do so many inferior qualities, and again, it will stand repeated washings! When you're ready to decorate, whether it be a room or just the bedroom set, buy your Johnson's enamel at Allison's and you'll find Mr. Allison will be more than glad to give you some very helpful suggestions about applying the finish!

WOMEN WANT TO KISS CONGRESSMAN

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 20.—"I am glad you do not smoke or chew—it would be heaven to kiss a man with a clean mouth!" writes Bernice Kern, of Des Moines, Ia., to Congressman Paul B. Johnson, of Mississippi, who is carrying on a hard fight in the house to prohibit women from smoking in public places in Washington.

This is a sample of the flood of letters which have reached Johnson since he offered his anti-smoke measure, but do not imagine that Miss Kern, of Des Moines, is one of the backers of the bill.

"This has been a man's world long enough," she continued, "and we women are ready and willing to regulate our own affairs as soon as you leave it to us and spend your time raising the standard of the man element."

The women of Washington apparently have taken little interest in the Johnson bill, only two of the many letters he has received on the subject having come from the capital.

"You don't know what you are missing if you dismiss without experience the charm of Lady Nicotine," H. French of 14 Wall street, New York, writes to the congressman. "If women lived today in accordance with the standards set by their grandmothers they would be crushed in the process."

Mrs. William Greenville, of New York city, says:

"Bully for you, Mr. Representative of Mississippi. I am not a prude. I am not a prohibitionist. I like a man to have his glass of beer, wine, or even whisky, as the case may be; but I draw the line at women smoking, either publicly or otherwise. I have two grandnieces who smoke. I am ashamed to say. They will never see a penny of my money just for that!"

Unmoved by the hundreds of condemnations and congratulations which have come to him as the result of his attempt to "regulate" the women of Washington, Johnson is busy lining up members of congress in support of his anti-smoke bill and hopes it will become a law.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

EDDIE CENTENARY IS TO BE CELEBRATED

(By International News Service)

BOSTON, July 20.—The centenary of the birth of Mary Baker Eddy will be celebrated tomorrow at her birthplace, Bow, a little town near Concord, N. H. Many Christian Scientists from all over the United States and many from foreign countries will make a pilgrimage to her grave. Observance will be held in all Christian Science churches in honor of the founder and discoverer of what is now known as a remarkable spiritual movement. On February 1, 1866, as the result of a fall, Mrs. Eddy first experienced the spiritual healing.

Lloyds Win Rain Bet

(By International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 20.—The cards of fate are stacked against the St. Louis Municipal Opera Association. Rain insurance doesn't pay, say officials of the organization.

For eighteen days the association has bet Lloyds $60 to $1000 that more than a tenth of an inch of rain would fall on the Railway Exchange Building roof, twenty stories high, between 4 and 8 p. m. While heavy showers have prevented presentation of operas in the west and open-air theatres, only slight sprinkles have fallen atop the specified building.

FOUNDER OF MONKEY GLAND THEORY IN NEED OF FUNDS

By FRANK E. MASON,
International New Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 20.—Austria's inventor of "perpetual youth" monkey gland operations, Eugene Steinach, is suffering because he has not discovered the secret of the famous touch of Midas which converted all objects to gold. Professor Steinach has been forced to decrease his amount of experimental work for lack of money, he informed Egon Dietrichstein in an interview for the Neue Berliner.

Professor Steinach lives in a village in the outskirts of Vienna, near the building which serves as his hospital and laboratory. He receives hundreds of letters daily from all parts of the world asking for reports on his experiments. Patients from Turkey, Spain and South America join curious Austrians and Germans in his anteroom to ask his advice.

"I have become the joke of the vaudeville and musical comedy artists. Most of the persons who visit me are simply curiosity seekers. Unfortunately the interest in my work seems to stop there. Unless the curious cease taking up so much of my time I will be forced to leave Vienna and seek out some quiet spot where I am unknown to continue my work. Millions of kronen have been promised as a subsidy, but nothing paid. At the present time I have had to give up my experiments entirely because of lack of funds."

Rain Dampens Stubbornness

(By International News Service)

BRIDGEPORT, Ohio, July 20.—Mrs. Grant Dent, wife of a local resident, refused to follow her husband's lead and leave their home when the husband sold it.

The new owner served notice on her and then a constable set the goods out in the street.

Unconcerned apparently, Mrs. Dent watched the procedure. When it was completed she seated herself on a pile of bedding, daring the arm of the law to force her to leave the sidewalk.

FORCE PAYMENT OF INCOME TAX

(By International News Service)

PARIS, July 20.—New methods of collecting income tax returns are now being discussed in Parliament the majority of French taxpayers having failed under the present system to show any returns or pay any tax. For the past financial year returns show that 33 per cent of the taxable population of France failed to produce any statement of its income.

Leon Bailby, editor of l'Intransigeant, suggests that some sort of lottery be organized for the benefit of those taxpayers who have been honest enough to declare their revenues and pay, and to the disadvantage of those who continually evade paying a tax on their income. He proposes that the population of France be split up into sections of from three to five thousand people and that from ten to fifty names in that number be chosen at random. If these have declared their revenues and offered to pay their income tax they shall be exempted. Any of that number who shall not have shown any returns, shall have their taxes doubled or even tripled and in addition be sentenced to several months' imprisonment. The same would apply to any taxpayer in the 5,000 who had not made any returns.

M. Bailby remarks that it would cost little to institute this control and he thinks it would have the advantage of frightening would-be evaders of the law.

A Big Flag FREE

HONOR THE FLAG

The Glendale Daily Press struck a responsive chord in its offer of a beautiful bunting flag with each yearly subscription paid in advance. All we could procure at that time were speedily taken and many applied for the flags after the supply had been exhausted. To satisfy these demands we have ordered a new supply, and these will be given on the same terms as were the first. The Daily Press is not doing this as a money-making proposition, for the flags are quite costly and the paper is worth every cent asked for it, but we desire to do our bit toward stimulating patriotism and reverence for the flag. We hope to eventually see "Old Glory" displayed in every Glendale home, and we want to do our part toward bringing this about.

Fill out the coupon below and bring it or mail it to the office, accompanied with $5 for a year's advance subscription, and a flag will be laid away for you. If in arrears, pay to date and a year in advance to get the flag.

NEW THOUGHT CENTER PICNIC

The Glendale New Thought Center is to have a picnic dinner at La Ramada Park Wednesday. July 20 from 6 to 7 p. m. Every one is invited to come bringing lunch boxes and the ladies of the Center will serve dessert in the form of ice cream and cake. Prof. J. Cameron Diamond will make a short after dinner talk and the balance of the evening will be devoted to the main purpose of the gathering—the promoting of acquaintance between old and new attendants on the New Thought Center meetings. Mrs. C. R. Carmack and Mrs. N. P. Stanley will be the hostesses of the evening.

LONG AUTO RAMBLE FOR THE HOWES

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howe, who are guests of Mrs. Howe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bright, at 319 North Maryland, are leaving Saturday morning for a northern auto and camping trip which will keep them away for six weeks or two months.

They will go first through the Owens river valley above Bishop to Mammoth lake, where they will camp for three or four weeks and fish in the lake and trout streams. There is quite a colony of Glendalians in that locality on the same pleasure bent, and they are likely to run onto the Harry McCartneys, Dr. and Mrs. Lusby, C. H. Thompson, the realty man, and if they carry out their plan to visit Silver lake too, they will probably meet Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin. From there they will go over the Tioga pass into the Yosemite valley and then go north to Mendocino county, where they will visit relatives until they are ready to join a party of friends who are going up into Lassen county to hunt deer for a couple of weeks.

The Howes are equipped with a full camping outfit and will be quite independent, stopping at hotels when they feel like it or keeping to the wilds if they decide they like that best.

The Howes have sold their home on Burchett street and have purchased unimproved property about midway between Glendale and Los Angeles, on the ridge east of Silver lake, on which they will build soon after returning from the north.

GLENDALIANS BACK FROM OUTING IN SEQUOIA

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts are again enjoying the comfort and artistic beauty of their new home at 617 East Elk avenue for they have returned from a two weeks' outing in Sequoia National Park in which they camped on the Marble Forks River and fished in the Wolverton Creek where Mrs. Roberts caught some rainbow trout but found the fishing not as good as she had hoped for. They climbed Moro Rock where they had a magnificent view though not quite as beautiful a one as they enjoyed two years ago from Glacier Point above the Yosemite Valley. They had a little experience with a forest fire but it was soon under control. The whole forest is patrolled twice a week as a protective measure at this season. They saw from five to ten deer every day, mostly does but one five-pointed buck came in view one day, and three darling fawns with their mothers

They visited the bear pit in the reservation park where they found one black bear and three cinnamons, one of the latter a mother bear with cubs like puppies that climbed with the speed of monkeys when their mother sent them up a tree. It was cool throughout their stay on the mountain tops round about were snow covered; but they had plenty of heat when they struck the valley at Bakersfield.

Because of the stiff grades in places it is a little harder to get to than some of the other camping places but Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were delighted with it particularly the big trees which they visited and where they were awed by "General Sherman" said to be the largest tree in the world, measuring 36½ feet in diameter and 279½ feet in height. The ferns and wild flowers around their camping place were also very beautiful and they are both glad of the section they made for their vacation trip.

LOWER FREIGHT RATES URGED

Taking up the appeal of vegetable growers' associations in the southern part of the state, Governor Stephens yesterday sent a communication to the executive committee of the American Farm Bureau in Washington, urging that their efforts be used in securing lower freight rates on the transportation of vegetables in California.

It is pointed out that the high freight tariff at the present time has so discouraged farmers that unless immediate aid is forthcoming many of them will desert the farm for other employment, to the detriment of food supplies for local cities. The various vegetable organizations of the state are at the present time gathering evidence to place before railroad officials to prove their contention that the rates are too high.

LEAVE TO ATTEND ANNUAL SYNOD

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds and Dr. H. M. Stadt left today for Berkeley to attend the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of California, which will be in session from July 21 to 28. Mr. Edmonds and Dr. Stadt are the commissioners from the local church. After the sessions are concluded Rev. and Mrs. Edmonds will take a vacation and spend a week or two in and around the Bay District. In their absence Rev. Tinning, assistant pastor, will occupy the pulpit of the Glendale Presbyterian church and he will also respond to any calls for service made upon the pastor.

GLENDALE REALTY THIRTY MILLIONS

The assessed valuation of Glendale property for the tax year 1921-1922, is a little over $12,000,000. City Treasurer Stauffacher reports. This is is $3,000,000 in excess of last year's valuation, an increase of over 30 per cent. Glendale's real estate is worth the comfortable sum of $30,000,000.

In 1919, the United States imported 1,390,334 cords of pulp wood.

ENGINEERS APPROVE LOCAL PLANS FOR DISPOSAL OF SEWAGE

At the adjourned meeting of the city council Monday night, City Manager Watson reported concerning the visit of R. F. Goudey, assistant engineer of the state board of health, and of his approval of the proposed sewer units for the business center of Glendale, also of the plans for the Verdugo canyon sewer system and disposal plant, and of his assurance that there would be no trouble in getting a permit from the state.

He also told the council of the experimental activated sludge plant that has been prepared by Ralph Hilscher, director of the state board of health, for one of the government institutions, which is now in active operation. He stated that he had written to Mr. Hilscher to ascertain where it is located, with a view to inspecting it if possible. There was a little talk about whether it would be possible for the whole council to visit it, and Mayor Robinson suggested that they go in a body in the Knox fire engine, which, in his opinion, is the best vehicle in town, which, of course, drew a laugh.

Mr. Watson added that Mr. Goudey is very much in favor of the activated sludge plan for the purification of sewage. The city manager likewise impressed upon councilmen that it will be an advantage to the city to have the advice and help of these state engineers, who have offices in Los Angeles and have expressed their willingness to aid in any way possible.

Annexations

Election returns from the Viola street district, which were reviewed by the City Council will again be presented to the Council at its meeting tomorrow night for action in regard to accepting the petition for annexation to the City of Glendale. If the matter is acted upon favorably an order of annexation will be formally drawn up, to be transmitted to the Secretary of State for his approval.

The vote cast by the Pacific avenue district in favor of annexation with Glendale has already been accepted by the City Council and will be sent within a short time to the Secretary of State for approbation in the same manner as the Viola annexation petition.

GOOD WORDS CLUB IS CONCERNED ABOUT FOUNTAINS

A special committee from the Good Words club, composed of boys and girls, in company with Mrs. Gilchrist, who organized the club, visited the city hall one day this week to urge that the city fountains for the dogs and birds be kept full of water these hot days. The club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gilchrist and when she asked them what special thing they wanted to do, with one voice they declared for missionary work in re the fountains, so she went with them without delay to the city hall. Miss Helen Page is president of the club.

TRENTON, Mo., July 20.—George Moss will not exceed the speed limit again—especially if he has a young lady friend in his car.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

GARBAGE PERMITS ARE NOT POPULAR

Only 1473 garbage permits had been issued up to today. As there are between 4000 and 5000 residence in Glendale and several hundred places of business, it follows that less than a third of these are entitled to the collection of their garbage by the city.

MAN'S SUPREMACY

"The survival of the fittest" maintains everywhere, and someone has said that in this respect men are no better off than monkeys, hyenas, ideas, institutions or sewing machines.

But, like many aphorisms, proverbs and catchwords, this statement is only half true. Men and monkeys are both in a constant struggle for self-preservation and, with both, the fittest survive. But the difference is noteworthy—mark it well: The individual man can make himself fit. But the case of the monkey, unless he is born fit, is hopeless.

The monkey can never rise above his circumstances. He never has more than the bare necessities of life. But in the man's case neither breed, nor birth, nor circumstances can hold him down if he wills to rise. He must be fit to survive—but he can make himself fit if he will but use his brain. He has at his command all sorts of self-helps, innumerable avenues to physical, mental, moral and financial fitness. He has it in his power to overcome all handicaps, to conquer all difficulties. Hundreds and hundreds of times has this been proven by men and women in all walks of life, in every state of society, and it is still proven daily in office, store and factory, on farm and on battlefield.

"Trust in thine own untried capacity as thou wouldst trust in God."

IMMORTAL HEROISM

The death of Private Munson, the soldier who was decorated for bravery for carrying a message from the "Lost Battalion" to headquarters, recalls an incident in the World War which will be accorded equal prominence in American history with the glorified heroism of Paul Jones and Commodore Perry. Students of history will read, in the years to come, with undying pride, the account of the famous "Lost Battalion," commanded by Major Whittlesey, which, unfortunately, advanced ahead of the other divisions and which became surrounded by the enemy. Whittlesey's "Go to hell" reply to the German message demanding surrender will be immortalized with Jones' curt retort, "We haven't begun to fight," when his opponent asked him if he were ready to surrender.

Two men at Clinton, Iowa, went down to the river to drown a terrier pup which they had decided was no longer needed in this realm of strife and woe. They were preparing a weight to hang about the cur's neck when a bolt of lightning struck them dead. The next morning a searching party heard the barking of a dog and later found the pup beside the two stricken men. He had kept an all-night vigilance over his would-be slayers. It is worth any man's while to get acquainted with a good dog.

Glendale is not the only city having real and alleged grievances. The city fathers in Des Moines, Iowa, are making an investigation of the ice cream business there, hoping to learn why an ice cream soda costs 22 cents in Des Moines and only 17 cents elsewhere.

The government hasn't money enough to pay a bonus to ex-service men, but it can spend three times as much for naval armaments as was spent in 1916, when all of Europe was aflame with war.

President Harding has signed the naval bill appropriating $310,000,000 for the construction of a larger navy. Now call that disarmament conference and agree with the other world powers on a limited navy before more than $400,000,000 is spent.

GRAVE AND GAY

Her chief object was to make a fool of the latest fashionable philosopher. "Tell me," she cood, "don't you find it a little difficult sometimes to write all those hard things about women?" The philosopher regarded her with impartial eyes. "There is a certain difficulty, madam," he replied; "but it is purely one of selection."

John Hays Hammond is one of the richest men in the world, and a tax collector tells a good story about him. The collector called on Mr. Hammond one day on the subject of income tax, and Mr. Hammond, after his income tax had been computed, said: "Look here, I guess I'll keep the tax and let you government people keep the income."

An Indianapolis resident went up to the sidewalk newsstand to buy his regular weekly magazine. "Police stopped us sellin' anything but newspapers. Drug stores and hotel newsstands made a kick against us," the attendant told him. "You mean no one is selling magazines from the street newsstands?" asked the would-be purchaser. "Nobody except the stand on the next corner. He's bootleggin' 'em."

A Scotchman who was notorious as a skeptic had erected a massive mausoleum for his final rest and one day he observed an elder of the kirk gazing at it. "Strong place that, hey David?" he asked. "It'll tak a mon some time tae raise up to o' that at the day o' judgment." "Hoot mon," said David, "ye can gie yersel little fash aboot raisin' when that day comes. They'll tak the bottom oot o' it and let you fa' doon."

"Good advertising," says a man well up in that line, "benefits any form of business. The right sort of advertising gives you a friendly feeling toward a firm. It makes you believe that it will be both pleasant and profitable to deal with the advertiser. A certain grocer once inserted in the newspapers an advertisement that had this merit. It ran: 'Twins are come to me for the third time. This time a boy and girl. I beseech my friends to support me stoutly.'"

"Many stories are told," said Col. Elliston P. Masters at a Fort Sheridan tea, "of French hotel extortions. But the worst I have heard was related to me by an army friend. He went to a hotel in Paris without making a bargain about rates and dined altogether at restaurants with friends. One evening, as he was starting out as usual, the proprietor accosted him in the hall and inquired: 'I hope you are dining with us tonight, monieur?' sieur?" 'No,' my friend answered, 'I have an engagement.' The proprietor with a despairing gesture exclaimed: 'It is an insult to the establishment, monsieur, never to dine here.' 'Not at all,' my friend answered and thought no more of the matter. But when he came to pay his hotel bill, although he had not eaten any meals there, he found this item: "Twelve dinners—350 francs.' 'But I took no dinners here,' the guest protested to the proprietor. 'You remarked about that to me yourself.' 'I know you didn't,' was the reply.' 'Had you taken those dinners the price would only have been 250 francs.' 'And what, in heaven's name are the extra hundred francs for?' 'For the insult, monsieur, for the insult.'"

Chop fine an equal quantity of corned beef with the vegetables and a bit of the fat from the meat. Heat three tablespoonfuls of sweet fat from salt pork pork, turn in the chopped mixture and add a few tablespoonfuls of broth with a dash of paprika; mix all together, cover and let stand until hot. Stir occasionally until well heated, but do not brown. Turn on a hot platter, pour a ring of potato catsup around the hash and serve.

Gingerbread Custard

Scald a pint of milk, beat the yolks of two eggs and add one-fourth of a cup of sugar. Add the scalded milk gradually to the sugar and egg, and pour this over one cup of gingerbread crumbs which have been placed in a baking dish. Place in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes. Cover with a meringue made from the egg whites, and brown in the oven.

Pressed Pink Salmon

2 eggs.
2 level tablespoons melted butter.
2 cups fine bread crumbs.
1 can pink salmon which has been put through a sieve.
¼ level tablespoon salt.
Pinch of cayenne pepper or 2 pinches of paprika.

Mix all together. Turn into mold, cover and steam one hour. When cold, cut into thin slices. Serve with or without tartar sauce. This is an excellent filling for sandwiches.

STUDIO NEWS AND GOSSIP

If you've never seen a real, honest-to-goodness husband hunter, this is your opportunity, for Eileen Percy fills the bill to perfection. She is most charming in this role in "The Husband Hunter," and the picture itself is so brim full of lively comedy situations that it is kept moving at a swift pace throughout.

"The Woman God Sent" is a Selznick Super-Special produced with the completeness and thoroughness peculiar to all Selznick pictures. Zena Keefe, Selznick's 1920 star, and Joe King head an all-star cast that is notable both for its strength and prominence.

"Howe do they do it?" is a question which spectators in motion picture theatres often ask as they watch a picture on the screen. Scenes which will doubtless prompt that question are those in "Too Much Speed," Wallace Reid's new Paramount Picture.

A beautiful tea room of the famous Ritz in Paris is reproduced in Billie Burke's new Paramount picture, "The Frisky Mrs. Johnson." The set was constructed at enormous expense and adds greatly to the value of the production.

The expense to which the large motion picture companies go to obtain the proper scenes for their pictures was again illustrated in "A Romantic Adventuress," the adpatation of the Charles Belmont Davis story, "A Winter City Favorite," in which Dorothy Dalton, Paramount star has the leading role. The script called for Miss Dalton, who had the part of a dancer, to make a hit at a first night of a new revue in New York. Believing it impossible to adequately reproduce this scene in the studio, Famous Players leased the Park Theatre, which has housed many notable production, several days for a number of important shots.

A beautiful setting representing an ancient Greek Garden with silver moonlight playing on a fairy fountain, was erected on the stage, and in this artistic atmosphere Miss Dalton, wearing a flowing Greek robe, accompanied by several other girls, did a classic dance. Several hundred extras were employed to form the audience and at the conclusion of Miss Dalton's dance their applause was genuine.

"A Romantic Adventuress" abounds in other interesting scenes representing the New Orleans Mardi Gras, Monte Carlo, and the old French quarter of New Orleans. Miss Dalton has a role that her admirers love her in—a sparkling, spirited, interpretation of a girl who has been greatly wronged by her mother all her life.

The late Clyde Fitch undoubtedly was one of the most successful playwrights of his day. One of his most popular comedies was "The Frisky Mrs. Johnson" and it enjoyed a long run in New York. This play has been picturized by Paramount with dainty Billie Burke as the star.

Miss Burke is delightfully cast in this picture. She is a gay charming American widow in Paris and wins the reputation of being "frisky" because she is merely unconventional. But she has a brave heart as she proves when she saves her sister from scandal at the risk of the loss of a strong man's love. Ward Crane is here leading man and heads a highly competent supporting company.

OF INTEREST TO MUSICIANS

Margaret Matzenaur, contralto of the Metropolitan opera, was married to Floyd Clotzbach, formerly of New York, at Carlsbad on June 20. Mme. Matzenauer has been a member of the Metropolitan forces since 1911, having made her American debut there as Amneris on November 12 of that year. She was born at Temesvar. Hungary, in 1881, and made her first operatic appearance as Puck in "Oberon" at Strassburg in 1901. She has sung at Bayrenuth and Munich. She was first married in 1902 to Ernst Preuse, but a divorce came in 1911. On July 26, 1912, she married Edoardo Ferrari-Fontana, an Italian concert and operatic tenor, who created the leading tenor role in the American premiere of Montemezzi's "L'Amore die Tre Re" at the Metropolitan in 1914. They were divorced in January 1917. Their daughter, Adrienne, is with her mother. Mme. Matzenauer finished the season with the Metropolitan last April and was to have appeared at the benefit given subsequently for Andreas Dippel, but was called to Europe suddenly by the illness of her mother. It is said that the singer's friends in the United States had no knowledge of her approaching marriage.

Eleanor Spencer, American pianist, who is scoring successes in Europe, will not return to America for another half year or more. She won an impressive success at The Hague, playing the first Beethoven concerto, with the Residentie orchestra. and following this with two recitals equally successful. The American Minister and Mrs. Phillips gave a reception for her at the legation when she played for a large number of diplomatic and other guests.

The possibility of the Chicago opera association's eliminating the New York season from its tours in the future is intimated in a statement made by Harold F. McCormick. "The destiny of the Chicago grand opera company is in Chicago and the middle west," said Mr. McCormick. "Formerly it was thought advisable to make the New York tour and sustain a financial loss because of the added prestige the New York season gave the company. In the future this may not be necessary or advisable. Under the trustees economies will be practiced which were not effected under practically personal ownership. When it is known that deficit of from $125,000 to $175,000 must be faced, the Chicago opera company will devote itself to western territory."

Mexico Has Alaskan Consul

SEATTLE, Wash., July 20.—Rodolfo Ramirez Mexican Consul at Antwerp when the Germans bombarded the town, and awarded the decoration of the Order of Leopold by King Albert for his service to humanity in relief work, has been named by President Obregon as Consul at Juneau, Alaska, and is the first consul any foreign nation ever has sent to Alaska. Ramirez sailed for Juneau on the S. S. Alameda leaving Seattle June 26.

'PASSING THE BUCK' IS PRACTICED IN CONGRESS

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 20.—House leaders are alarmed over the growing tendency of the Senate to pass the legislative "buck" to the lower branch of Congress.

In previous years this practice was indulged in frequently by the House which passed its chestnut burrs along to the Senate with the excuse, by way of justification, that the longer terms of the Senators permitted the sins of omission or commission to pass from the minds of the voters and prevented immediate retaliation at the polls.

The Senate is getting ready now to send to the House for final decision a soldier cash bonus bill. The bill will carry the approval of the Senators, and responsibility for its defeat will be placed squarely on the House.

Enactment of the bonus legislation requires the levying of additional taxes to meet the new drain on the Treasury. The House does not want to take responsibility either for new taxes or for defeat of the soldier bonus. Each proposition is charged with political dynamite of the most dangerous character, and the campaigns for re-election of House members will open in less than one year.

House leaders recall that at the outset of the special session of Congress the Senate leaders forced on them responsibility for the decision that tariff revision should precede tax revision when it was the plan of the House leaders to have the two revision measures run concurrently. Younger Republican members of the House and many Senators are now complaining vigorously against delay in securing both the tariff and tax revision and the lightening of burdens on the people.

Somehow the Senate leaders seem to have shifted the responsibility to the House for the delay in enacting legislation terminating the State of war with Germany. House members complain. They assert that the Senate acted on its peace resolution before the Administration judged it safe to have done so because of the difficulties experienced by the Allies in getting Germany to acede to reparation terms, and the House was called upon to help out the Administration by holding up the peace resolution. Immediately following satisfactory action by Germany the House passed a peace resolution. The Senate took its own time in reaching a decision.

Protest Senate's Non-Economy

Likewise, complains the House, the Senate and the House jointly are pledged to the Republican pre-election pledge of economy, yet the House has not sent one appropriation bill to the Senate that the latter has not added millions to its total of draft on the Treasury. This is true particularly of the Army and Navy Supply bills. When protests come from that numerous class of citizens who demand a large army and a large navy as insurance against aggression and war the Senate calmly announces that it sought to provide funds for the two establishments but the House obstinately prevented.

The Senate is going quietly about its business according to time sanctioned custom, but apparently is enjoying its new role of passing the "buck." It is waiting, carefully concealing whatever impatience it may feel over delays, for the House to pass and send along its tariff and tax measures. Responsibility for the legislation will be evidenced then by the Senate, which proposes, according to Senator Penrose, to investigate thoroughly and possibly make many changes in the measures.

THEATRES

Palace Grand

Miss Dalton was never more beautiful than in her magnificent costume as Titania, Queen of the Night, in which she wins the laurel wreath. She says she never enjoyed a scene more than this one in all her career as a motion picture star.

"A Romantic Adventuress," which was adapted from "A Winter City Favorite" by Charles Belmont Davis shows Miss Dalton as Alice Vanni, daughter of an old dancing master of New Orleans, whose mother deserts her in infancy to go to New York and live a life of ease, after her father's death, Mrs. Vanni, now known as Mrs. Martyn, takes her daughter to New York and exploits her beauty and talent as a dancer. While visiting in Monte Carlo Mrs. Vanni endeavors to blackmail an Italian into marrying her daughter.

So popular was Buster Keaton in the picture "One Week," at the Palace Grand, that manager Jensen has again secured the comedy for today's bill.

Glendale Theatre

In these days of continual rush and hurry, a picture with all the charm and beauty of real American country life has a strong appeal. And "Down Home," the new Irvin V. Willat production which is booked for today and tomorrow at the Glendale Theatre, is as refreshing as the wholesome atmosphere which surrounds it.

"Down Home" is a powerful play of human passions and desires, with the pure, unswerving devotion of a young and beautiful girl for her weak and decrepit father as the central theme. How, with her aid and tender care, and the inspiration offered by the kindly village minister, he is lifted to a better and higher life, forms a story that will hold your interest from beginning to end.

Leatrice Joy, as Nancy, the devoted daughter, brings to the role all her youth and charm, together with a sympathy for the part that is both unusual and gratifying. William Robert Daly, the veteran stage actor, has created a never-to-be-forgotten character as the village drunkard who struggles to lift the curse which is upon him. Edward Hearn, as the simple, clean-minded youth in love with Nancy, is convincing and lovable in the part, and the rest of the all-star cast are admirable in the parts as signed to them.

A two-part comedy called "Verse and Worse" featuring Jack Cooper will be shown both today and tomorrow along with "Down Home."

An "Eastern Tours Company" has been producing opera in India, China, Burma, Japan and the Philippine islands. The theaters are movie houses but the temperatures, too, unsticks the glue of the violins, and ants have a mania for exploring the wind instruments.

Records of the city of London show that there was a meat market at Smithfield as far back as 1253.

PEACH AND FIG PRICES FOR 1921

Peach and fig prices for the year 1921 were announced yesterday by the California Peach and Fig Growers, Inc., the growers association which controls more than 90 per cent of the dried fig and peach production of the state. Peach prices have for their basic figure 9 cents per pound while the basic price for figs will be from 7 to 9 cents per pound.

The current price quoted for peaches is a decrease of 6 cents a pound below the base figures for 1920. Fig prices will average higher than the base quotations for last year though this is the first year the association has dealt in figs.

PICK UP MESSAGE IN BOTTLE AT SEA

(By International News Service)

PORTLAND, Ore., July 20. — A sealed beer bottle, containing a card with nautical markings and instructions, asking the finder to mail it to the address thereon, was picked up on the Oregon coast after a six years' journey from Japan, and turned over to the Japanese consul here. It was one of the many cast adrift by the Japanese imperial fishing station at Hak-kaido, island of Yeso, to test the coastal currents of that vicinity, according to the consul.

The hieroglyphics on the card indicated the bottle had floated probably north until caught in the cold current coming down from the Bering straits, had then perhaps been carried nearly to the equator, where it was picked up by the northward flowing current that warms the Pacific slope and had been blown by a gale to the Oregon coast.

At the consulate it was said no other such bottles had been reported and customs men at Astoria, on the Oregon coast, likewise declared the find was a rare one.

Even so, the beach comber who picked up the bottle in this land of prohibition refused to be enthused, 'tis said. A Japanese postcard is of little use to a man with a thirst, he opined.

K. OF P. CONFERS RANK OF KNIGHT

Visitors From Other States Entertained—New Band Assists in Program

Tuesday night at the regular meeting, the Glendale Lodge, Knights of Pythias, conferred the Knight rank on a number of candidates. Besides the regular membership, a number of visitors were present from Idaho, Colorado and other faraway states. A notable figure was Past Grand Chancellor Eaton from Kansas, who did not make himself known until there was a call for someone to fill the vacant post of vice chancellor in the ceremonies. He then explained his rank and offered his services, which were accepted by Chancellor Fram, and the splendid manner in which he performed the work was a revelation and inspiration.

Following the work of the evening, the K. of P. band gave several selections. This collection of musicians will soon be sufficiently organized to make its bow to the public.

There was the usual banquet and exchange of social greetings.

Thursday night the lodge will go to Van Nuys to put on the work there, and will be accompanied by Past Grand Chancellor Eaton.

Next Tuesday a school of instruction for all officers and members of temples in this district will be held in Pythian Castle hall, Los Angeles, that such officers may have the opportunity to perfect themselves in the work. This school is held once every three months, and it is probable that most of the officers of La Halla temple, this city, will attend.

The Glendale lodge has added about thirty members to its roster since the first of the year, and is now a flourishing unit of the order.

DENIES VOTING FOR RECOMMITAL

Denying a rumor that he had voted for a recommital of the soldier bonus bill to committee, Hiram Johnson, United States senator from California, yesterday telegraphed Major Frank P. Dougherty, of Los Angeles, explaining that as he was sick at the time the vote was taken in the senate he paired with Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, who supported the President's recommendation that the bill be returned to committee. This means that neither Johnson nor Pomerene cast votes.

The California senator's telegram is as follows:

"Confined to my home with sickness all week. Voted against recommital of soldier bonus bill by pairing with Pomerene of Ohio. If any doubt regarding my attitude in any publication, please make it plain I voted against recommital. Hope to be out Monday."

CARL NICHOLSON IS OVERCOME BY HEAT

Carl S. Nicholson, well-known letter carrier, who resides at 815 Orange Grove avenue, was overcome by heat Tuesday and ordered to lay off from work for a few days. He was not seriously prostrated, and expects to be well enough to resume his regular beat by the end of this week or the first of next. He is vice chancellor of the Glendale lodge, Knights of Pythias, and was unable to be present at the meeting on Tuesday evening, his office on that occasion being filled by Past Grand Chancellor Eaton, of Kansas.

Aldermanic Ignorance

(By International News Service)

LONDON, July 20.—Women bathers at Hythe, Kent, are reported to have expressed a wish for more modest bathing attire.

Alderman Tonbridge, who last season voiced complaints against the sights on the seashore, moved at a meeting on the town council that the bathing inspector be authorized to purchase a quantity of two-piece bathing suits.

The alderman attempted to describe the required article, and finished up lamely that "it is a sort of flounce, you know."

ILLINOIS MAY PASS MOTHERS' PENSION

(By International News Service)

HINSDALE, Ill., July 20.— A bill drafted and fathered by Judge Henry Neil, of this city, "Father of the Mothers' Pension System," has just been passed by the lower house of the Illinois legislature and is on final passage, without opposition in the upper house.

It provides pensions for mothers of dependent children, when the father is imprisoned over a year or more. This law authorizes the juvenile courts to pay the mothers $35 a month for the first child and $15 a month for each additional child under 14 years of age. A special tax of 4-10 of a mill is to be levied on all property to provide a mothers' pension fund, out of which the prison pensions and the regular mothers' pensions are to be paid.

This fund, in Cook county (including Chicago), would amount to $750,000 a year.
